MEMORANDUM FOR: COMOR

SUBJECT: Handling of Cuban Photography

1. General Cabell approved the following amendment to TCS-8109-60 entitled "Handling of Cuban Photography" as follows: Significant and a limited number of items of information taken from TALENT [REDACTED] photography may be released SECRET NOFORN initially through T channels to essential military field units. The TALENT control officers in those units will be informed that there [REDACTED] In the event inquiry is made as to source the TALENT control officer will state that he will look into the matter and will inform CIA [REDACTED] of the inquiry. CIA will be responsible for providing necessary cover stories.

2. On the basis of the first preliminary report COMOR representatives will meet with [REDACTED] to sort out the information that needs to be handled as above. This initial procedure (that is for determining what may be released) may be relaxed by the COMOR after this experience depending on our findings.
